

Block Names and Numbers

AUDIT ADVICE

Each block or unit of production must be assigned a name or number and this number physically posted at that unit of production and referenced on your maps. Auditors will visibly check this during your inspection. The block numbers and names you use must match those used on your spray records.