

Records

AUDIT ADVICE

The Global GAP standard requires that all records be kept a minimum of two years unless a longer requirement is stated in the control point or required by state law.