

Worker Safety

The following person is responsible for worker safety and health at this location. They are responsible for ensuring compliance with local regulations and implementation of policies relating to worker safety, health and welfare.

---

INSTRUCTION

Someone on the farm must be responsible for workers safety. It is usually the owner or manager. This is the person who accidents are ultimately reported to and is responsible for organizing safety meetings and other workplace safety initiatives.