

Treated Sewage/Reclaimed Water

All treated sewage water and reclaimed water used for pre-harvest activities, must meet water quality standards of the World Health Organization's published Guidelines for the Safe Use of Wastewater and Excreta in Agriculture and Aquaculture 2006.

When the water used is coming from a possibly polluted source, the water is to be analyzed and shown to meet WHO guideline requirements, or local regulations for irrigation water.