

Operator Contamination

Portable or plumbed shower and eyewash stations have been installed at each mix load site when required by the label and local regulations. Soap, water, towels and a change of clothing are also available.