

Empty PPP Containers

Empty PPP containers are not to be re-used for any purpose. They are to be disposed of during a planned recycling event. Prior to the event they are to be stored in a container marked “Garbage” and kept secure. All rinsate from containers should be returned to the application equipment during mixing and loading.