

Transport Vehicle Cleaning Procedures

Good sanitation practices are key to ensuring food safety and product quality. Any vehicles used to transport fresh produce will be inspected and cleaned prior to loading. Flatbed type trucks and trailers must be visible inspected prior to loading bins. Debris should be swept or washed off the bed. Container type trailers should be swept clean prior to loading.